CHARITY NEWS

The Salvation Army is doing the Angel Tree Gift Tags again this year. Bobbie Deken has tags for anyone who would like to receive one. Each tag has information about a child for whom a gift has been requested, including sex, age, and specific request information. Tag holders are requested to buy a gift for the child and bring it unwrapped to the December meeting. (Or, the gift may be taken to the Salvation Army or to Bobbie's house if you can't attend the meeting.) Please use your own discretion regarding the value of the gifts, but somewhere in the $30-$50 range is typical.

Please contact Bobbie at 440.382.9068 for more information regarding the Angel Tree tags. Note that you can also bring an unwrapped gift to the December meeting to donate to a child in need, even if you elect not to take an Angel Tag. These gifts will be distributed by the SA to meet childrens' requests.

In addition to Angel Tags, Bobbie mentioned that SA will be seeking assistance to prepare gifts for distribution. The assistance will be needed on the 13th and 14th of December. More information will be available at the December meeting, including a sign-up sheet. Also, the Mail Chimp will send further information in December. Thanks to all CCA members for your support.
